MADE IN ABYSS

Presented by Tsuburaya Akiba

is not the time to feel
down,
that comes later...

Now

Here.

You need to eat
too,
right?

L... why am I sad...

After
you finish
eating,

it's time to leave.

Ahh....

smells nice...

You..

Ummm... it doesn't seem like you're biting it
as much as when
I do it

What
you're going
to rub
me too
aren't you?

is too
lewd-!!

The
way you
rub me

Onihouou Spring-holiday Style Cooking

Riko's Dish

Served with Tokashikou
fruits and crushed boiled eggs seasoned with salt

Sprinkled with Zetsouki roots, without stirring the dish

Deep-Fried Bankiwasa

Appearance: Not bad

Deep fried with blubber, that comes out while heating the skin wasn't there another person here?

Say

I had a really scary dream...

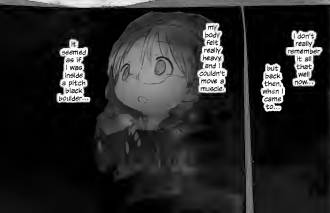

where you were...

Why did I think so again...

death

How... how?

It seemed as if I was inside a pitch black boulder...

My body felt really heavy and I couldn't move a muscle.

I don't really remember it all that well now... but back then, when I came to...

It hurt,
and I couldn't breathe.

but it started getting more
and more cramped...

At
first,
the cavity
was about
the same size
as my body.

I cried,
again,
and again... I was so scared

I even forgot
how to speak...

It got to the point where I didn't know what I was anymore.

A
crying voice
that wasn't mine...

But
then,
I heard a crying
voice.

But I realized that she was scared too.

It surprised me at first.

!?

During that period, which seemed like eternity...

It calmed me down, a just a little...

For all that time

I told her, "it's alright".

but with only my eyes

she also couldn't speak.

Even though I was scared this girl in front of me was more scared than I was.

and the crying voice

Stopped...

There was a smoky scent...

Her eyes
overflowing
with aspiration...

She looked just like
the devils
did...

For
the longest
time, I stood
and looked at her

"I have to go",
I thought.

Then...
I remembered
just what I wanted
to become.

Several Days Later

This is where I go when I'm alone.

What?

Is that really a spring?

They're pretty sure it's the same place where you can hear their voices.

There are also some small animals that come to bathe here occasionally.

Fourth Layer

Water for Spring of Old Animals

Here

Monks' Storage

Small Spring

Small Spring

Small Spring

Small Spring

Small Spring

Fourth Layer

The Day of the Spring

Water Layer

There's light shining from underneath.

Okay.

It seems like you're really in deep trouble, so don't go there.

Heh...

What's this about a kiss?

Take your time~

I have to keep watch, so~

I can't help to watch this.

How easy...

For bringing back...
Rage's treasure.

thanks

Atty...

just a little longer...

please wait...

Please...

But it
moves

just
the thumb

You can't just depend on Reg.

If I just ditch you halfway, she'll chew me out the next time we meet.

You had Mitty interested in you.

Well, sure.

Is also really good, right?

Reo's cooking

We are really right.

I... came from the place that you're heading for...

That is something that I had planned to tell you later

I'll explain when Mitty

is that place that you mentioned before

Minao, and also.

Say,

The faster
we depart,
the better,
right?

We've got plenty of work
to do.

Well then,
let's start
preparing.

Mother
is waiting,
after all!

Yeah!

Manufacturing of protective suitcases

Collection of water
resistant materials

Arm recovery

in progress

Sorting of delving tools

Construction of support tool

Let's
go.

Well
then,

Fourth Layer
Middle Region

Garden of the Flowers of Resilience

Okay.

You'll catch the bunbun.

Also, make sure you don't go
on top of the Hill.

As
the one I saw back then.

It's
the same place
....

There
are some who have collapsed!

Del-
vers!

There!
At the football!

Several of them.

I heard
it too.

...Har-
rack!

Also,
my words
are ...

Stay out of sight.

...

Is it fine to observe
the situation

Go
and help
... no.

Riko,

Use
this.

Absolute...

You're
good
to go

All
right

Are they confused?
The consequences
over there are horribly
disordered
...

NAH

I'll watch over the force
field.

If
you see something
odd,
tell me.

Okay.

Why
is he here
...

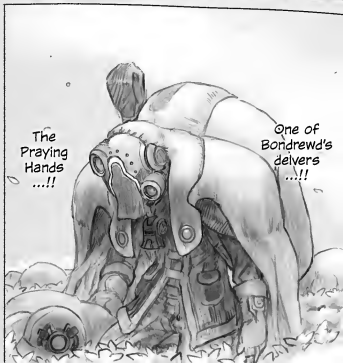

Why
...

Black whistle
...

muffled deliver
...

Reg, stop
!

The Praying
Hands
...!!

One of Bondreud's delivers
...!!

Bondred Karakchi
and Mitty's Enemy!

It's due to the appearance of these creatures.

They actually have a strong, exciting scent...

"I love Flowers of Persistence, they're always blooming."

...

What are you doing at such an important time?

However, be careful of the flower garden in the sixth layer.

You'll enter their nest, if they're mixed in with the leaves.

What is this?

To make matters worse, they bloom practically everywhere in the lobby.

Keep reading, Marlene.

Disguising as the lovely Flowers of Persistence, they will attack living things that get too close, and plant their larvae

.....

It's likely that they let themselves be eaten, so that the host can survive longer.

Don't bother. We already have enough specimens.

Hey... just now, in his mouth...

An astonishing method of cultivation.

Once the host is invaded the host becomes a food source for the larvae, as long as it's still alive.

Wow!

Adults will occasionally enter through the host's mouth.

They don't go beyond the structure-taken flower garden.

But if they were to spread to other layers.

wouldn't the current environment of Tokoshokudo be completely raised?

When I took specimens from their abdomens they admitted, it might be more accurate to say that they made a resonance.

Incidentally

What you heard was that.

Already, those printing might have been depleted.

this proved to be too much for us to handle.

The one who found your fascinating Hammar is also a gonist.

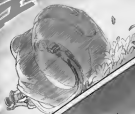

The adults are suitable to be food, but...

Just wait until tomorrow.

These creatures coming from the outside North Star.

ガッパ

ガッパ

There are still other deliveries here, right?

Who... what are you doing?

There's no saving them anymore.

The magpies are entering their active state.

and
my pride as a demon...

What
will happen
to those people...

I can't lose sight...

of what I'm trying to protect...

I can't lose sight...

and
of no concern
right
now...

This is horrible...

Damn...

How did it end up like this...

Damn...

The way they were watching us...

and my memory too...

The flower garden...

that was there...

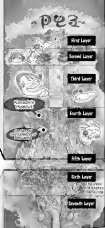

I came from the bottom of the fifth layer.

Fifth Layer

From a place they call Ido-front, the Forward Operating Base.

Sixth Layer

The location you're heading for is also there.

Don-drawle's miniature garden.

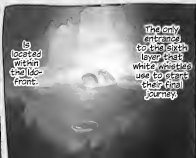

The final point where humans can still return from the Abyss.

I don't think he'll just let you pass under his nose.

A mechanical doll who is meant to curse...

A child of a white whistle, who has returned from the Abyss...

Is located within the Ido-front.

The only entrance to the sixth layer that white whistles use to start their final journey.

Nana

Well, at the very least, let's keep going while staying alert...

They already know we are coming... on top of that, here is right within their field of vision.

If you don't use a ship, that's the only entrance there is.

There's a part that doesn't spin.

Look, at the front.

Wow... so that is...

That's the device... used to start the Great Era, into the sixth layer...

There's a tower right in the center of it, right?

That building used to be the home of a great era.

Some thousands years ago.

You probably just came up.

Did I climb up from here too...

You can hold your breath forever, can't you?

I wonder if it's a special place for the ancient people...

✿ HAMASHIRAMA ✿

They are widespread in the floating sea of the fifth layer. Bizarre-looking, aquatic-swimming creatures, they are said to eat sedimentary life.

The internal organs are packed into the head.

They spray their mucous internal organs to stop the movement of predators. It's been reported that it then uses them as living shields.

Including the Hamashirama, many aquatic creatures of the fifth layer are said to be unaffected by the burden of climbing upwards, that they have a different set of sensory organs from surface organisms.

DANGER LEVEL: ★ (MINOR)

*Only applies to fishing. The act of diving deep into the sea of the fifth layer is synonymous with suicide.

Swimming form.

✿ KUONGATARI ✿

It's said that they live within the impenetrable territories, the sixth layer. Their existence is only known from very few reports of the white whistles.

Subsequently, the disappearing incidents of the Garden of the Flowers of Resilience inside the fourth layer, was described incredibly similarly to the reports written by Lyza, the Lord of Annihilation, asserting the very Kuongatari species as the cause of it.

The diving association requested for Bonness, the Lord of Dawn, to immediately respond.

The reason behind its migration to the fourth layer is currently unknown. There are concerns of them spreading to the multitudes of Eternal Fortunes clusters.

DANGER LEVEL: ★★★★★ (IRRATIONAL)

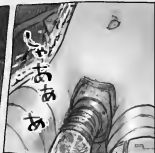

Coming out of fossils tens of thousands of years old, the Eternal Fortunes, the Flowers of Resilience, are the symbol of the Abyss. Anywhere the Eternal Fortunes bloom, these guys will turn them into death traps. Eternally deceiving, they are horrible scoundrels.

They will assume dormancy during mimicry, and deceive those who can read consciousness from the flow of the force field such as the deep predators and myself.

The deciding factor was Mrs. Lyza's particular skeletons and rough ecological surveys.

PLANTY BEAST.

Yeah...

Right, there was also

where the flying

filled up
the hole,
weren't
there?

Those
two things pushed beyond
the stagnated
dating techniques
of the time.

base
that would soon deep within
the Abyss
was secured.

route
into
the invincible
was planned.

Around
ten years
ago, a series
of things previously unheard
of
was accomplished.

Which
part
of him
is bad?

He sounds like a good person...

Sometimes
was
the one who took care
of it.

He
poisoned
every water source
that he knew
the insects were coming from.

He
burned
all wildlife
that disrupted
the securing
of
the route!

They might not get immediately
along with
the surrounding ecosystem
yet.

regardless
of who might have still been around.

It seems like
he received huge foreign funding
with
the medicine
he produced through human experimentation.

He
performs his developments
based on that.

He put together
and information
of
the Abyss
through illegal channels...

His methods
are also previously unheard
of.

Here a white rabbit appears after all...

Why does
he look like he's having fun.

That's the Lord
of Dawn

He
brought down to the antithesis of accepted
traditions
and pride of the delvers,
trampling
over them

Now nobody
would approach him,
out of fear.

But every single one
ended up disappearing.

There
were some who aimed for his bounty.

Come to think of it, he seems to be wanted
overseas
for an unclear criminal offense.

He feels like he's something that's merely masquerading,
imitating
humans.

There
is something strange
about his character.

when
I met him, Sondrow gave a different impression
than all of them

I've
also met delvers
who have touched
nature

I've
seen some incredibly astounding
native wildlife.

things
like him
would qualify as one.

If
monsters
truly
do exist within the Abyss.

The one that cut your arm off...

Sparagmos, the originating light...

and burned through the immortal Alty's eye. That's his weapon.

What?!

What did he do?!

Were they holding on to it...? Or are there multiples of it...

Come to think of it, Rag, when you were done in, there were only his headless, weren't there...

I totally thought it came out from his mask...

Where did it come from? The machine on his elbow...?

That should be it.

Feel free to clear your throat.

What are you doing holding it such a place

!!

Damn... so he can also read the flow of consciousness...

Bondswind is using some kind of trick on me.

After meeting him again, I'm sure of it.

Now, the important things.

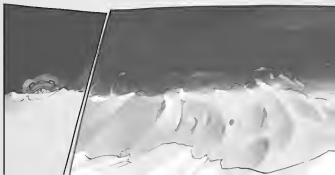

These are my eyes, we're talking about, after all.

Mmm...

So that confirms they'd been observing us back when you said you hadn't found anything.

They hijack my vision.

It might be related to what the Praying Hands did.

Wonderful.

Wonderful.

So think that you showed me that you "knew".

So I will planning to warn you not to provoke them, but...

Good gracious

You were right on top of the insect's nest.

To put on one for what's next?

I wonder if you can afford

So you already know it...

You bearing...

Wonderful

ポル

Making use of your stand-ness to commit a suicide-bombing a light-stone bomb ..

You truly are a boy.

We're not done yet...!

you aimed at the gaps of my armor, didn't you

I'm surprised.

Do you recognize it?

Those are slugs-gatan larvae.

There is nothing gods made your head anyway.

go ahead and let it get on your head.

4th...

This is...

Listen.

Take advantage of what he could only see during his peeping.

Surprise him with the items we have prepared.

Shower him with completely different things than what he'd know.

How...

How very...!

I'm
envious.

Such a pher-
nominal destructive power...

I'M NOT DONE
YET!!

NOT YET.

We
have no idea how many of the Sparag-mos
exists...

So
the only thing we can do is make sure he doesn't find it.

If heat that is enough to burn the air is released underwater.

The water would vaporize and create a huge explosion.

a massive amount of water.

Its weakness is

its weakness is

its weakness is

Wonderful

Did you think of this?

Wonderful!

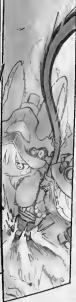

Now, Reg!

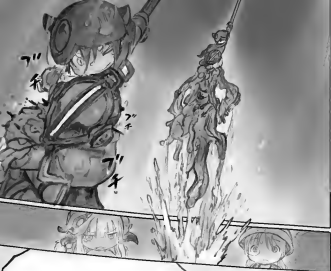

In this situation, Sparagmos cannot be fired.

I see.

How surprising!

...!!
uu.

Beyyond
here...

We'll
go...
here...

That
wind blew
to...

Haa

take your first breath...

I will let you

I haven't introduced myself.

That reminds me.

Delver
of the Abyss.

I am Bon-drewd.

The Lord of Dawn,
as some people
call me.

Wouldn't
you agree, Nanachi?

Challenges deepen love.

and paved the way for Prushka's
completion.

You truly are wonderful.

You've
brought about a level
of tribulation
that we could not reach.

REG, WAIT!!!

Aah, how courageous and cute

everyone of you.

I certainly
desire

Please do not be stunned,
they will only slightly hurt
your viscera

Those are Shukens,
needles carrying the burden of the third
layer

Rwoll!

Every single
the Praying Hands
is but myself

Two?

Why
are there
two of you...?

You
bas-
tard...
What's going on...?

Why not...?

ahh...

...

Now, Nana-Chi.

Let us go together.

Cute, blessed child...

Nana-Chi.

I've called this phenomenon a blessing.

There exists an effect that is rarely observable under a human's sake, that is too strong.

The Joyse does not merely grant curses.

when the body received only the blessing of the Joyse.

You are the 40th successful instance.

By law, so to speak.

You are deeply spiritually tied to Ality...

YOU LOW-LIFE FRIEND

YOU

I shall welcome you.

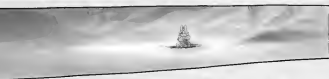

Feel free to come anytime.

I apologize, but I must take my leave.

Prushka almost woke up.

What there...

dispose.

dis-
pose.

Please dispose of anything marked in crimson.

for dead.

Papa...

Papa...

L...

want to see
...the dawn...

Indeed.

Let us witness
the dawn,
together.

Together
would be fine...

Together...

On an adventure...

Indeed.

We shall be together.

Forever-
more.
